

Avoiding Scams and Fraud

Beware of individuals or organizations that:

Promise guaranteed results or quick fixes.

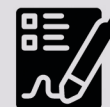

Ask for large sums of money upfront.

Claim to have special connections with immigration officials.

Do not provide a written contract or receipt.

Always verify the credentials of anyone offering immigration services. Only attorneys or accredited representatives can legally provide immigration advice.